CHAIR YAGO

Yago combines retro charm with professional quality. With its frame made of matt black powder-coated steel and ergonomically shaped plywood in stained ash walnut or ash smoke, it fits perfectly into modern loft, industrial and hospitality concepts. The seat and backrest are ergonomically shaped and provide comfortable seating. The lacquered wooden surface is easy to care for, making it ideal for daily use in gastronomy, hospitality and modern work environments. For additional comfort, Yago is also available as Yago P with a padded seat and backrest.

- Distinctive look: Retro design for stylish loft, industrial and contract furnishing concepts
- Easy to maintain in everyday use: Lacquered wood and a robust steel frame make daily cleaning easier
- Flexible use: Also available as Yago P with padded seat and backrest for greater comfort
