Modular compact Bench systems: The H-Line impresses with its compact design and shallow overall depth – ideal for rooms with limited space. Thanks to its modular system, it is available in both Dining table and High table height and offers maximum flexibility for a wide range of applications. Three high-quality decors are available for customised design: classic black, welcoming light oak and elegant dark walnut. Seat upholstery and back upholstery are available in various cover options, allowing harmonious integration into any room concept. The generously sized modules with few joints create a calm, elegant overall appearance, while the well-thought-out design with a reduced number of intermediate supports ensures high stability – ideal for long-lasting use in demanding contract environments.

- 8 cm thick foam for high seating comfort
- Individually customizable seat and backrest
